Please tell us MORE about the temperament, character, personality and habits of your animal.

Please list any medical or behavioral concerns that we should know about.

He's a very friendly and happy dog whenever it's just me and him, and until the incident with the bite he was super friendly with every person he's ever met. His training for dog reactivity has been going very well, and his threshold for reactivity has decreased from a full city block to around 10 feet. He's been trained to wear a gentle leader head harness, and with a little coaxing he'll even walk with a loose leash now.
